5. Shahādah:

Declaration of faith

Lesson Objectives
The students will learn:

- The complete meaning of Shahādah.
- Importance of Shahādah in Islam.

Muslims believe in Oneness of Allāh (swt), that He is the only God. He alone is the Creator and Provider. To declare that, we say:

لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ
La ilaha illa-lah.

It means, there is no deity but Allāh (swt). A deity is the one who has the qualities of God and can be worshipped as God. We learned from earlier chapters that only Allāh (swt) has those qualities. So we accept that only Allāh (swt) is worthy of worship, and we do not have any other God or deity. This acceptance is first part of the Shahādah.

In the second part of the Shahādah, we accept that Muhammad (saw) is the last Prophet of Allāh (swt). We believe in all his teachings and we also believe that Allāh (swt) gave him the Qur'an to guide us. We believe in both the parts of the Shahādah by saying:

لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ مُحَمَّدٌ رَّسُولُ اللَّهِ
La ilaha illa-lah, Muhammadur rasulullah.

19. 'Isā (as):

A Prophet of Allāh (swt)

Lesson Objectives
The students will learn:

- About special facts of Prophet 'Isā (as).
- The importance of 'Isā (as) in Islam and Christianity.

We learnt about the story of Mūsa (as) and the Israelites in the previous lesson. Israelites are also known as the Children of Israel or Bani Isra'el. 'Isā (as) came as a Prophet to them. He came many years after Mūsa (as). Among the Christians, Prophet 'Isā is known as Jesus. The Christians follow Prophet 'Isā (as). They do not follow Prophet Muhammad (saw). However, we Muslims, believe in both of them.

From the Qur'an

إِذْ أَنْبَأْنَا مَرْيَمَ بِمَا لَمْ يَحْضُرْكَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ يُرْسِلُكَ بِرُوحِهِ فَتَلْقِيهِ
فَقُلْنَا يَا مَرْيَمُ اقْنُتِي لِمَا نُوحِي لَكَ مِنْ رَبِّكَ إِنَّهَا سَكِينَةٌ

'Isā (as)'s mother was Maryam. In English, she is called Mary. She was a pure woman. Allāh (swt) gave her importance above all other women of the world. One day, the angels brought a message from Allāh (swt). They gave Maryam the news about the birth of a son, 'Isā. In the Qur'an, 'Isā is also called the Masih.

Behold the angels said, 'O Maryam! Verily Allah gives you the glad tidings of a Word from Him, his name will be the Masih Isa, the son of Maryam... (Qur'an 3:45)

4. Salāt

Lesson Objectives
The students will learn:

- Importance of salāt.
- Four Main kinds of salāt.
- Different types of salāt.

Important WORDS

Fard: Compulsory, obligatory.
Sunnah: Way, practice.
Nah: Voluntarily.
Wajib: Necessary, essential.

Salāt is one of the most important pillars of Islam. It is a duty upon every grown-up Muslim to be consistent in offering salāt, five times a day. These five salāt are Fajr, Dhuhir, Asr, Maghrib and 'Isha. Each of the salāt is offered at its stated time.

Importance of Salāt

Salāt is compulsory in any condition. No Muslim should miss it. If someone is sick and cannot stand, he or she can sit down and pray. If someone can not pray sitting, he or she can lie down and pray. While travelling, we may shorten our salāt.

Benefits of Salāt

It is mentioned in the Qur'an that salāt prevents us from shameful and unjust deeds. It is so because during the salāt, we communicate with Allāh (swt). We talk to Him, five times every day. It stops us from

On Hadith

It is narrated in the book of Ishārah, that the Prophet (saw) once asked his companions: "If a river flows at the door of anyone of you and you took a bath in it, five times a day, would you notice any dirt left on the body?" The companion answered, "No, a trace of dirt would be left." The Prophet (saw) then added, "That is the case with the five salāt, through them Allāh (swt) washes away your sins."
